CARL OGLESBY, FORMER LEADER
TO SPEAK AT UM WEDNESDAY

MISSOULA--

Carl Oglesby, a former president of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), will speak at the University of Montana Wednesday (April 8), announced Lee J. Tickle, UM Program Council director.

Oglesby's lecture, sponsored by the Associated Students' Program Council, will be held in the University Center Ballroom at 8:15 p.m. The program is open to the public without charge.

President of SDS in 1965-66, Oglesby was a member of the SDS National Committee in 1968-1969. He is a founding member of the International War Crimes Tribunal, which was organized by the late Bertrand Russell to question U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War.

Oglesby attended Kent State University in Ohio and received his bachelor's degree in literature at the University of Michigan.
